SACNY NEGROES.—It has grown to be an every day occurrence for negroes who live themselves out to work by the week or month, as servants, housemaids, washers, ironers, &c., to grow tired before their time expires and demand full wages, threatening that, if it is not paid, all the negro has to do is to inform Major-General Palmer, and he will make them pay.
Hence a negro hires herself for a week, works a day and demands a week's wages, and in many instances, threatens that, if it is not paid, all the negro has to do is to inform Major-General Palmer, and he will make them pay.
